WHY AGRO PACK TURKMENISTAN?

- Turkmenistan is one of the fastest-growing economies in the world.
 - With the construction of a modern port on the Caspian Sea, Turkmenistan has become a strategic logistics hub for Central Asia.
- Direct contact with government authorities and private sector buyers: Agro Pack Turkmenistan offers the opportunity to establish direct business connections with government authorities and key decision-makers.
- Qualified visitor profile: Agro Pack Turkmenistan attracts strong interest from professionals in agriculture, food production, distribution, and retail sectors.
- New export opportunities for emerging sectors: Increasing demand is observed in agricultural technologies, greenhouse systems, food processing, and packaging solutions.
- Brand visibility and regional expansion: It serves as a strategic showcase for companies aiming to enter the Central Asian market through Turkmenistan.
